Applications are open for post-docs and advanced PhD students who are enrolled in a cancer immunotherapy program.

Application Guidelines

Interested early-career scientists must submit a scientific abstract, a scientific CV, and a letter of intent which describes their academic and professional goals and projects. As there are only 24 spots available, applications are evaluated and selected by the Winter School program committee.

The abstract text should not exceed a maximum of 3,000 characters (incl. spaces). Please submit text as a Word document only. Double-check all your special characters.

Abstracts must describe in a succinct manner the purposes and results of the research so that the quality, novelty, and comprehensiveness of the work can be evaluated by the Scientific Abstract Committee. Each abstract should contain: (a) an introductory sentence indicating the purposes of the study; (b) a brief description of pertinent experimental procedures; (c) a summary of the data; and (d) a statement of the conclusions. These should be provided as a single paragraph without any subheading. No citation, figure, table, or any type of illustration should be added to the abstract.

The CV and letter of intent should be submitted as a PDF. Please send all required documents to office@cimt.eu by October 23, 2023. Notifications will be sent by November 3.

Every accepted participant will have the opportunity to present their research with a poster and as a flash talk presentation. At the conference, you will be provided with a 1m (width) x 1.5m (height) bulletin board for your poster. Upon selection, more information will follow.
