General terms and conditions

Please note the following information as well as terms and conditions for participation in the above event:

Data privacy

We collect, process, and use the data you provide to us regarding your name, title, profession, and address for the organizing and managing the event and informational purposes only. If you do not want us to continue using your address to inform you about our events via mailing, email, and electronic newsletter, you have a statutory right of revocation.

The privacy policy of the Association for Cancer Immunotherapy CIMT e.V. is based on the terms used by the European legislator for the adoption of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

You may revoke your consent to the processing and use of your personal data and files at any time with effect for the future. Simply send us an informal email to office@cimt.eu. We require all our employees and service providers to keep all information confidential and to comply with all applicable privacy laws.

Copyright and image rights

Posters, graphics, lectures are usually protected by international copyright laws. Each lecturer warrants that he holds the rights of use to the items used during his lecture (texts, photographs, graphics). It is not permitted without express prior authorization by the author(s) to take pictures of posters, graphics, people, etc., and to transfer these pictures to third parties via social media or webpages. The person taking the pictures must be able to provide proof of such authorization by the author(s) (e.g. author's mail). Protected material may only be used if the author(s) is mentioned by name. Participants agree to indemnify the event organizer against any and all claims for damages by third parties arising from the infringement of any rights by the participant.

Participants must indicate on the registration form whether or not they agree to the use of photographs taken during the event for advertising purposes (Internet, etc.) and press releases related to the CIMT Winter School.

Participants who agree to the use of pictures for this purpose may revoke their consent by sending an informal email to office@cimt.eu.

Liability

In all events, CIMT acts only as an intermediary between the participants and the hotel, bus company, recreational activity organizer, etc., and is not responsible for any damages, accidents, losses, delays, or any other irregularities.

Terms of payment and cancellation of registration

Fees are payable upon issuance of the invoice. Invoices for participation in the event will only be issued in the name of the participant and will bear the participant's invoice address. If you cancel your registration before December 29, 2023, you must pay a cancellation fee in the amount of EUR 70.00. If you cancel your registration after this date, the invoice amount will not be reimbursed and will be due in full. The full invoice amount must also be paid if a registered person fails to show up at the event. Please note that cancellations can only be accepted if in writing.

Changes and cancellation of an event by the organizer

The 2024 CIMT Winter School event will only take place if minimum attendance numbers are reached. The organizer reserves the right to replace speakers, change the date and location, cancel sessions, or modify the program. If the event is canceled, fees already paid will be refunded in full. Any further claims for compensation shall be ruled out.
